Thank you...

for choosing CPHI Americas as your event to connect with leading pharma professionals from across the entire Americas region and beyond.

As many of you will be traveling from far and wide to attend our event, we want to support you with travel tips, sustainability insights and exclusive discounts to help make your journey to Philadelphia and your time here as rewarding as possible.

Philadelphia is already famous for its delicious Cheesesteaks, its historic backstory and being the City of Brotherly Love – it is also a key location for pharmaceuticals.

Getting to Philly

- Philadelphia is the second-largest city on the East Coast, with nearly 25% of the U.S. population within a six-hour drive, it offers convenient access to a significant portion of the country.
- Prefer not to drive? Amtrak, Greyhound, and Megabus connect Philly to major cities, while Philadelphia International Airport (PHL) accommodates flights from over 130 destinations worldwide.
- Located in the heart of the Northeast Corridor, Philly is just 80 miles from New York City, 120 miles from Washington, D.C., and 55 miles from the New Jersey shore.
- Philadelphia boasts a vibrant downtown (Center City) and offers award-winning restaurants, world-class arts, and the nation's most historic square mile. It is also an established pharma hub for the Americas region.

Whether you're flying, driving, or riding the rails, the City of Brotherly Love is ready to welcome you!

Beware of scams!

Please disregard any emails or messages from unapproved vendors and book exclusively with our trusted partner, onPeak, to ensure safety for your stay in Philadelphia.

Getting around Philadelphia

You can walk to the Pennsylvania Convention Center if you book your hotel with onPeak and if you stay after you can continue to enjoy Philadelphia on foot.

Philly offers a variety of eco-friendly, convenient ways to explore its historic sites, vibrant neighborhoods, and top attractions – no car required.

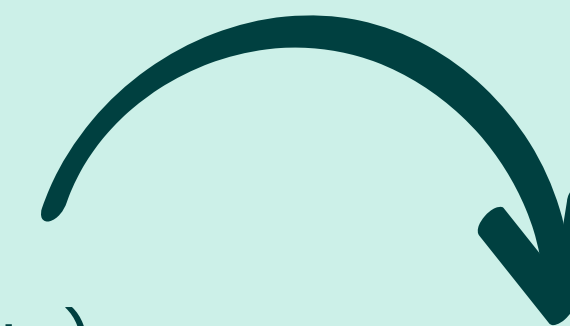

Walkable Philly

Philadelphia is one of the most walkable cities in the U.S., with:

- A compact downtown (Center City) featuring a simple street grid.
- Scenic walking trails along the Schuylkill River and Delaware River.
- Iconic public squares like Rittenhouse and Logan Square, perfect for breaks between sights.

Look for Walk! Philadelphia directional signs and uniformed Community Service Representatives (CSRs) throughout the city to help you navigate.

Bike-friendly city

With over 340 miles of bike lanes & trails, Philadelphia is perfect for cyclists.

- Use the Indego Bike Share program for easy, short-term rentals starting at $4.50 per ride.
- Bikes are available 24/7 at 250+ docking stations across the city.

Getting around Philadelphia

PHLASH downtown loop

The colorful PHLASH buses are an affordable way to explore the city:

- $2 per ride or $5 for an all-day pass.
- Operates daily service from May – September

SEPTA public transit

Philadelphia's public transportation system, SEPTA, connects the city and surrounding counties with subways, buses, trolleys, and trains. It's affordable, accessible, and bike-friendly. Key options include:

- Broad Street Line (subway): Convenient for getting around Center City
- Regional Rail: For trips to neighborhoods like Chestnut Hill & Manayunk

Car options

Did you know you can request an electric vehicle when booking your car rental? This could reduce the environmental impact for those that need a car.

For those of us who choose or need to drive we have some discounts available on car rental.
